

CARE “LESSON” PRE-OBSERVATION CONVERSATION

CARE FOCAL STUDENT PROFILE WORKSHEET

Directions: Start by sharing the information you have gathered about your focal students. Make sure your observation partner knows who your focal students are and what culturally relevant teaching practices (chosen from the motivational framework) you will be using. Discuss what evidence of engagement to look for and what disengagement for your focal students has looked like in the past.

Focal Student Name	Learning Needs	Disengagement Looks Like...	Culturally Relevant Teaching to be Tested:	In this lesson, Evidence of Engagement will look, looks, and looked like...
Juanito (Mexican)	IEP, Reading, ELL	Avoiding task, walking around and talking a lot	Relevance, use examples that connect with Juanito and his life and the selected reading.	Following along with text, participating verbally
Angelica (African American)	TAG, but not engaging	Puts her head down, often sighs, eye rolling	Rigor: Make her a group leader during reading selection. Ask higher level questions	Facilitating discussion with student group and answering high level questions verbally
