New Superintendent Academy

Year 1

Program Overview

Designed exclusively for Oregon's first-year superintendents, this academy provides timely, relevant, and practical support to help you lead with confidence. Participants will gain actionable insights on finance, board relations, legal and policy issues, instruction, and communication—all while building a powerful network of peers and mentors.

Why Participate?

- Get Grounded in essential topics like finance, state reporting, contract negotiations and legal responsibilities.
- Lead with Confidence using practical tools and strategies for navigating today's political and instructional landscape.
- Build Your Network through direct access to veteran leaders, COSA staff, and fellow new superintendents across Oregon.
