

Middle School & High School Civics Resources

Classroom Law Project offers the following resources, professional development training, and materials:

Topic / Concepts	Professional Development & Training offered	Resource Materials Available
Community Action Projects (formerly 'Project Citizen')	Authentic Civic Participation for Students of all grades; How to implement a Civic Action Project; Participation in Statewide Project Showcase at the Capitol	Guide for Teachers; Handouts for Students
Mock Trials	Multiple fun strategies for implementing mock trial skills; how to do a mock trial; Integrating Mock trial into multiple academic areas	Mock Trial Handbook; Multiple Mock Trial full case materials and guide for teachers
Simulated Congressional Hearings (We the People)	We the People curriculum; implementation of simulated Congressional hearings; integrating Congressional Hearings into multiple academic areas	We the People : the Citizen and the Constitution text; Guide on Simulated Congressional Hearings; other supplemental resources
Townhall Simulations	Training in town hall simulation and building consensus models of conflict resolution; implementing the town hall model	Various complete town hall simulation resources for teachers and students. Topics include Guns, Immigration, Water Conflicts, GMOs, SRO's, .
Fostering a Civic Space in Every Classroom	A one page resource of best practices to create a civic community where teachers can implement research based strategies and techniques to ensure all student voices are heard and valued.	Tip Sheet guide for teachers
Moot Courts	How to use landmark Supreme Court cases to teach various civics concepts through Moot Court Simulations.	Multiple Case summaries and resources teachers can use to design and construct Moot Court sessions
Building Consensus		Guides on building consensus
Current Events	Cohorted PD sessions and weekly emails provide teachers with best practice strategies to implement that fulfill a variety of social science skills standards.	Weekly emails (and website) with a variety of vetted media source materials (articles, videos, maps, etc) and in-depth strategies and lesson plans for meaningful discussions and activities around today's news.