Lead for all. Learn with peers. Create lasting impact.

The Inclusive Schools Leadership Collaborative is a professional learning series for superintendents and cabinet-level leaders committed to fostering equitable, inclusive environments for every student. Co-led by COSA and West Linn-Wilsonville School District, this network blends practical strategies with peer collaboration and expert insight. Participation is free for COSA members and designed to support both leadership growth and systems change.

Learn from experts.

Gain insight from equity-centered leaders shaping inclusive systems across Oregon.

Collaborate with Peers.

Connect with fellow district leaders to problem-solve and share real-world strategies.

Lead for All.

Access tools and practices that foster belonging, access, and opportunity for all students.
