The OACOA Seminar Series is a professional learning experience designed for Oregon's Central Office Administrators, with a focus on instructional leadership, coaching, and systems-level support. In partnership with ODE, we're diving into the Center for Educational Leadership's (CEL) powerful practices to elevate instructional leadership aligned with Oregon's new standards. Through targeted sessions, leaders in curriculum, operations, finance, and special education gain the tools and network to drive continuous improvement across their districts.

WHY ATTEND?

- Networking: Unparalleled access to a statewide network of education leaders
- Professional growth: explore principal coaching, effective PLCs, and using AI to enhance leader support.
- Solve problems of practice: learn from job alikes across the state and share your success stories!
- Unmatched savings: seminar series pricing includes 1 conference registration.; a $350 value!

Invest in your leadership and amplify your team's success!
