

Oregon Association of Supervision and Curriculum Development

November 18, 2015 • Salem Convention Center, Salem, OR

~ Engage Summit ~

Presenter(s)	Topic
Lindsey Capps- Oregon's Educational Priorities; Nancy Golden-Keynote: Engagement at the Heart of School	Educational Priorities for Oregon Vision for Engagement
Scott Drue, Aloha Huber Park, K-8, Elementary Principal of the Year (Beaverton School District)	High Leverage Practices and Student Engagement
Rachel Kimbrow: Lot Whitcomb Elementary, North Clackamas SD	Engaging Parents in a Diverse Community
OEA Choice Trust: Inge Aldersebaes and Centennial SD partners	Healthy school environments that support staff and students (evidence based practices)
Karen Johnson, 8 th Grade Teacher, Twality Middle School, Tigard Tualatin SD	Engaging the Middle School Reader: Strategies for Success
Sara Nilles, COSA Director of Student Leadership	Engaging Students in School and Community Partnerships
Marta Turner, Professional Development Specialist, NW ESD	Poverty and its Impact on Engagement: What Can We Learn?
Jeremy Sedita and Kristi Norton, Mount Scott Elementary, North Clackamas SD	Student-Centered Technology in the Classroom
Chet Edwards, Alternative Education Specialist	Chess for Success: Research-Based Program Results
Robin Shobe, Education Specialist, ODE and Isabelle Barbour, Oregon Public Health Division	Chronic Absenteeism
Mark Lewis, Director of STEM, Chief Education Office	Engaging Students through STEM
Brett Walker, Early Learning Division Specialist, Chief of Schools Office	Engaging Families: Pre K to 3
Karen Twain, Assistant Superintendent, Tigard-Tualatin SD	3 rd Grade Literacy for All: What will it take?
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Susan Orsborn, Principal of West Albany-</li> <li>• Dawne Huckaby, Assistant Superintendent, ODE</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Graduation Success in a Diverse Community</li> <li>• Graduation Data: The Lay of the Land</li> </ul>