

DAYS CREEK CHARTER SCHOOL DISTRICT SNAPSHOT

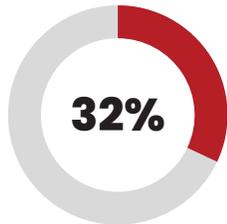

This close-knit rural community, located just off I-5, south of Canyonville and within easy reach of Roseburg, values strong relationships, local pride, and its charter school as the heart of the community. Days Creek Charter School serves as a hub for innovation, collaboration, and student-centered learning, offering a superintendent the chance to lead with autonomy, build meaningful partnerships, and shape the future of a school deeply connected to its families.

Days Creek Charter School has a charter board that supports the school's curriculum and assessment practices. The district is financially sound and has received five consecutive audits with no findings.

of our students transfer into our school from neighboring districts of our staff attended DCCS at one time in their youth of our staff live in the community

Days Creek Charter School has demonstrated consistent growth in math and reading achievement over the past four years. Last year, every freshman was on track to graduate based on credit acquisition and academic performance.

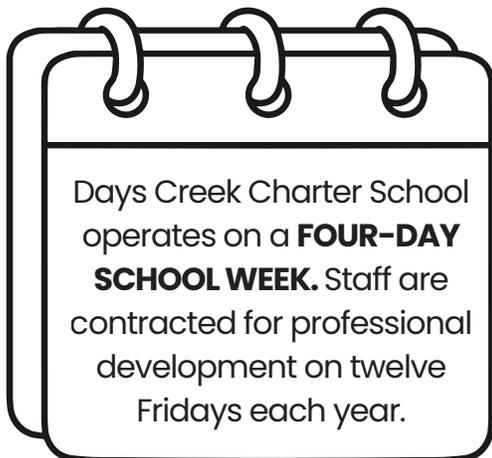

BY THE NUMBERS

11:1

student to teacher ratio

7.4:1

student to educational staff ratio

- steady enrollment growth over the last four years
- regular school attendance is above the state average and has improved 11.3% over the past two years

CLASS SIZE CAPS

