THE DISTRICT

The Lowell School District is comprised of Lundy Elementary, Lowell Jr./Sr. High School, Mountain View Academy, Bridge Charter Academy and a satellite campus for Bridge Charter Academy in Bend, Oregon. The District also provides Preschool, enrichment and afterschool care programs.

Lowell School District is proud of its instructional programs. LHS is recognized as having some of the highest graduation rates in the state. Lowell prides itself on small class sizes, top ranked athletic teams and award winning music programs.

With recent renovations and upgrades, Lowell encompasses many safety and security features. Recently remodeled, LHS has a new gymnasium, a new performing arts center, 1:1 technology for students as well as smartboards and modern classroom technology.

Our high school serves approximately 190 students, grades 7-12. Lowell School District embraces the philosophy that we can provide a private school education in a small school setting.

THE COMMUNITY

Located in the scenic Willamette Valley, Lowell, Oregon is home to hiking trails and beautiful lakes with eminent water recreation. Just a short drive to skiing in the mountains or sightseeing at the beach, Lowell has it all. Located 26 miles east of Eugene, it is a small community with dedication to its school district. The Lowell-Fall Creek residents passed a bond to fund safety and security measures, school upgrades and a new gym. Home to the annual Blackberry Jam, the community of Lowell is comprised of tradition and heritage, while keeping an eye towards growth. Lowell-Fall Creek boasts just over 2,000 residents. With the population of Lowell-Fall Creek on the rise, and school district enrollment more than doubled since 2014, this is a premier location for work, family and community.
