

Building Math Language

deepening student thinking through academic conversations in math

Debi Francis and Tom Stricklin
ELAS / Instructional Coaches
Salem-Keizer Public Schools

Outcomes

Participants will be able to

- Explain the importance of explicitly teaching the language needed to access the mathematics
- Describe and implement routines that foster academic conversations

What is the purpose of speaking in math?

- Write
- Read
- Paraphrase
- Respond

A) I hear you saying.....

B<sub>1</sub>) I wonder...

B<sub>2</sub>) Would you consider...

Our BOOKMARK...

the foldable

The Functions of Language

---

Cognitive and Linguistic

The Thinking

---

Modeling and Demonstration

The Language

---

Bricks and Mortar

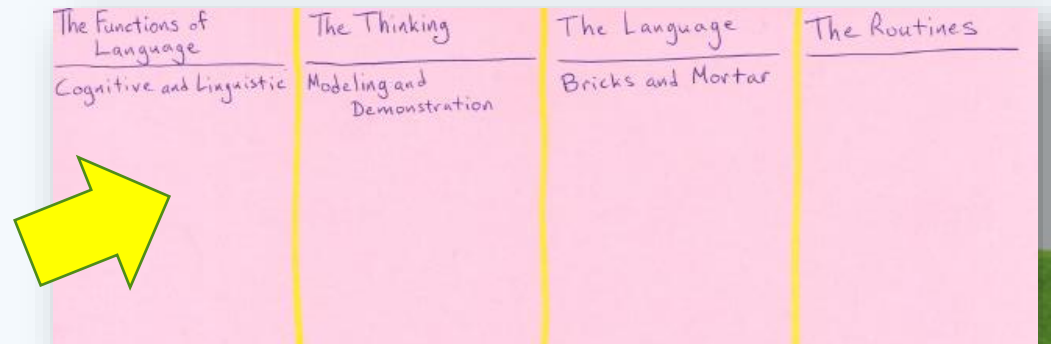

The Routines

---

The Functions of Language

Cognitive and Linguistic

- Compare and Contrast
- Cause and Effect
- Elaboration/Description
- Sequencing
- Justify

The Functions of Language	The Thinking	The Language	The Routines
Cognitive and Linguistic	Modeling and Demonstration	Bricks and Mortar

Professional Reading

Common Core Math Standards

Put New Focus on English Learners

STAND-UP/ HAND-UP/ PAIR-UP

Why is it important to make language visible?

The

M

Good for all students.

Critical for ELs and other struggling learners.

Create a headache where math language is the aspirin!

Dan Meyer - NWMC

Barrier Activity

You will be working in Quads/Trios

- Orator - you will describe what you see with your back towards your team (Image on Folded Paper)
- Illustrator - you will illustrate the description (graph paper)
- Scribe - record any Vocab Word you hear (lined paper)
- Chief Justice - you will make sure no one cheats!

Orator must not look at the Illustrators work!

The Language

Bricks and Mortar

- Word Banks
- Sentence Frames
- Frayer Model
- Writing Templates

Barrier – Think-a-Loud

2nd Round – Barrier Activity With Language Supports

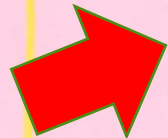

- Switch Roles
- Scribe – List any new vocabulary words used.
- Orator
  - ✓ Use the Word Bank
  - ✓ Consider the Sentence Frames

Routines

- Write/Read/Paraphrase Respond - WRPR
- Foldable - 3D Graphic Organizer
- Lift a line/Popcorn Share
- Graphic Organizer: T-Chart
- Barrier Activity
- Others?

The Functions of Language	The Thinking	The Language	The Routines
Cognitive and Linguistic	Modeling and Demonstration	Bricks and Mortar

Outcomes

Participants will be able to

- Explain the importance of explicitly teaching the language needed to access the mathematics
- Describe and implement routines that foster academic conversations

Closure/Reflection:

- What is one new idea you learned today?
- What is one question you have from today?
- How can you apply today's work in the coming month with your staff/colleagues?
- What is one suggestion you have for our presentation?

Thank you!

Debi Francis

francis\_debi@salkeiz.k12.or.us

Tom Stricklin

stricklin\_thomas@salkeiz.k12.or.us