

LO Quiz

48.
Mechanism used to choose VP and President?

41. Candidates for office are chosen by party affiliation in two ways.
What are they?

76. Congress has 3 types of powers: delegated (lawmaking), nonlegislative (oversight) and _____,' which is illustrated with the necessary and proper clause.

61. The executive branch continues to grow rapidly while the other two branches do not. Why?

83. For a bill to become a law a set procedure must be followed and in almost all cases three things must all agree on an identical bill. They are?

92. Civil law deals with _____ disputes, while criminal law covers deals with _____, that is punishable by imprisonment.

106. What are the two types of jurisdiction?

- a) Original, Civil
- b) Original, Appellate
- c) Appellate, Criminal
- d) Civil, Criminal

111. A good citizen is someone who votes, _____, and obeys the laws.

105. The Supreme Courts power of judicial review (ability to check the legislative and executive branches) came from the ruling in _____.

43. _____ are used to select party nominees for president and vice president and the platform they will run on.

48.
Mechanism used to choose VP and President ?

Electoral College

41. Candidates for office are chosen by party affiliation in two ways.

What are they? Primary, Caucus

76. Congress has 3 types of powers: delegated (lawmaking), nonlegislative (oversight) and Implied, which is illustrated with the necessary and proper clause.

61. Executive branch...growing Why?
Congress continues to pass laws that the executive branch must enforce, which requires staffing

83. For a bill to become a law a set procedure must be followed and in almost all cases three things must all agree on an identical bill. They are? President, House of Reps, Senate

92. Civil law deals with private disputes, while criminal law deals with public disputes, that is punishable by imprisonment.

106. What are the two types of jurisdiction?

a) Original, Civil

b) Original, Appellate

c) Appellate, Criminal

d) Civil, Criminal

111. A good citizen is someone who votes, pays taxes, and obeys the laws.

105. The Supreme Courts power of judicial review (ability to check the legislative and executive branches) came from the ruling in

Marbury v. Madison

43. _____ are used to select party nominees for president and vice president and the platform they will run on.

Conventions

Graph 'EM

